A separate and signed Code of Conduct must accompany each registration, whether it be a handler, guest, decoy, or board member.

WISCONSIN LAW ENFORCEMENT CANINE HANDLER ASSOCIATION

CODE OF CONDUCT

1) Professionalism: Be professional. You represent your department, yourself, and our organization. Before you do something, ask yourself if what you are about to do is of any benefit to your department, to you, or to our organization.

2) Harassment and Discrimination: Any type of harassing or discriminatory behavior or language will not be tolerated. Our organization is quite diverse, and yet we are of the same family. There is no place for any type of harassing or discriminatory behavior. Any report of such behavior may lead to being dismissed from the organization.

3) Canine Partners: When not at a training site, your canine partners are to remain in your squad, in your room, or travelling between. Canines are not allowed in the hospitality room or any other banquet/meeting room, unless specifically designated otherwise.

4) Hospitality Room: The hospitality room is available for the use of our members. All guests must be a registered attendee of the conference, or otherwise have permission from the Board of Directors to utilize the hospitality room.

5) Hours: The hospitality room and other banquet/meeting rooms will be open for set hours as determined by the Board of Directors. Attendees must follow the posted hours.

6) Property Damage: Be respectful of property and equipment belonging to other attendees, the host agency, and the hotel/facility. You and/or your agency will be held responsible for the cost of any damages that you cause.

This Code of Conduct has been established so that all organization members and conference attendees have the opportunity to train hard, learn, and have fun.

Agreement: I agree to abide by the above Code of Conduct approved by the WLECHA Board of Directors. I understand that, if I am found to have violated any portion of this document, I may be removed from an event, location, conference, and/or banned from the Organization. I acknowledge that the WLECHA Board of Directors reserves the right to contact my law enforcement agency and advise them of any behavior that the Board determines to be unbecoming of a member of this organization or of the law enforcement profession.
